President speech and future project - Nimes 2015

I am tremendously honored to speak to you from this tribune of world folklore. Today we are witnessing a historical moment for worldwide folklore. The General Assembly has decided the coordination of the cultural-folk life for the next four years. Today we have witnessed the consecration of the I.G.F. World Folklore Union. 65 years elapsed from the creation of I.G.F. by the two great Folklore Federations: from France and Italy. Little by little, the number of federations increased. We are now glad to have more than 50 federations all over the world. Not all of them fully deploy activities, it's true. That is why it is up to us to mobilize them and to make them aware that being part of the large I.G.F. family is a real pride. No one may be kept by force, but once accepted within I.G.F. they ought to comply with our Charter and activities. Each country has its own problems and we experience the financial crisis almost everywhere. Nonetheless I think that we should not go round or hide behind the crisis. What we do by our music and dancing may precisely mean an extraction from the empire of money. Good humor, friendship, hope are elements that each and every federation furthers one way or another. That is why I think that the new management team has got an important part in the years to come. That is the reason why I wish that the positions obtained today should not remain only some names put down on a sheet of paper. It is mandatory for all our colleagues to get involved in I.G.F.'s activity. The Board will have additional tasks, which is to arrange the two business meetings on a yearly basis. As of now we decide that each Board member has to arrange at least one meeting in the country that he or she represents. In order to work as openly and broadly as possible, I'd like to specify that any colleague that is an I.G.F. member may take part in the Board meetings.

In the years to come we will have to pay greater attention to our events. We live in a superior stage of life, therefore the conditions offered to the artists must be at the same level. We must not organize an international meeting for the mere sake of ticking it. Each federation chairman and much more the I.G.F. Board members must check up how the Festivals in his or her country are prepared and take place and if the conditions are not compliant, he or she must inform his or her colleagues thereupon or rectify them. In fact, we will appoint a colleague at each event of ours, who will inform the Board in writing about each and every festival. I very much wish to have at our seat a clear account as to the events of each country. That is why I kindly ask all our colleagues to advise the secretary general and the deputy secretary general on the ample events that they intend to organize in 2016.

Dear colleagues, we will carry on bringing out the I.G.F.

Magazine on a yearly basis, so I invite you to send me as many informative deliverables as possible. It is a way to render us better known.

Furthermore, our website, www.igfunion.eu, is active, so is the Facebook page - I.G.F. Folklore Mondiale. I invite you all to refer to them at least every week and to create yourselves a Facebook account, in order to be able to communicate the fastest.

We will continue our event entitled 'I.G.F. Folk Caravan', which had a tremendous success, and I am persuaded that it will be appreciated in the future, too. I take this opportunity to ask all our colleagues to make efforts to arrange these shows in central towns or cities, not on mountain peaks, which are very difficult to reach even by couch. In the previous editions we had both excellent towns or cities and also places where we don't wish to get anymore. That is why I request involvement from the part of all the colleagues, in order to check up our events in due time.

The proposition of the deputy chairman, Nicolas Charléty, to create an International Music and Dancing Academy and an I.G.F. tourism-folklore map seems to me extremely interesting and useful. I therefore ask all our colleagues to get involved in putting into practice these goals.

A crucial task, both for the Board members and for each I.G.F. member, will be the development of European projects. I therefore invite you and ask you to get involved therein. I think that at the moment we are the most powerful folk organization and the European cultural funds are multiple. I will therefore be expecting a specific measure scheme, directly from the deputy chairmen and from the scientific commission, in order to develop such projects.

Each I.G.F. vice-chairman will draw up a list of the national Federations that will become directly subordinated to them, which will enable him or her to have a clear account of the in-house and external activities that they deploy. At each Board meeting he or she will advise us on the on-site situations.

The secretary general and the deputy secretary general shall keep the record of all the meetings, the minutes being to be drawn up in the three languages: English, French and Italian.

The information shall be sent to the chairman's counsellors each week or depending on the novelties, in order to be published.

The treasurer and his deputy shall draw up an updated list and shall proceed to checking the bank account once again. Each colleague that will have paid his or her contribution will be issued a justifying receipt. At the Board meetings they will provide us with an updated financial account. Any and all expenses shall only be made with the written consent of the chairman. The treasurer and his deputy shall advise the colleagues, in written form, on any outstanding payments, on a quarterly basis.

The legal and administrative expert counsellor shall supervise the legal deployment of the activity at the administrative seat from San Giovanni Rotondo and shall support the putting into practice of the European funded projects.

The Board members shall monitor the development of the artistic events under

I.G.F.'s umbrella and they shall report their findings to the vice-chairmen and to the Board.

The Scientific Commission and the Artistic Commission shall draw up their own annual work schedule endorsed by the chairman and they shall collaborate with all the Board members for putting it into practice. Additionally, on a quarterly basis they shall inform the deputy chairmen on their activity (in written form).

The few aspects that I wished to set out above represent, as a whole, a work schedule for this legislature. As you must have noticed, I want us to get rid of chaotic enterprises and to work scientifically, according to plans, as it seems fit for a world organization. I am persuaded that if we follow these goals and if everyone does their job where they carry out their activity, we will reach our targets.

Dear colleagues, you can rest assured that you will have the respect and the friendship of the one that you have elected I.G.F.'s chairman today. Our work and efficiency will be judged in time, but I am sure that today we have laid an important brick at the foundation of the beauty of world folk culture, for the hope to have peace, faith and love all over the world.

IGF Folklore Caravan 2015

Some years ago I suggested within the I.G.F. World Folklore Union to initiate a special event meant to the folk music soloists. The idea came to me from the comparison with popular music and from the fact that in the world there is no such a festival. For this idea to be better shaped out, I suggested an itinerant festival. That is how the I.G.F. Folk Caravan saw the light of day. From the beginning the idea was warmly welcomed by Romania, France, Spain and Italy. It also was the first big tour made by the Caravan, displaying the outfits, the songs and the performers from 10 countries of the world. There were many friendly bonds tied up and the variety of the shows made the audience and the press regard this event with much attention, respect and admiration. A real cultural courier covered more than 8000 km in Europe, carrying the message of friendship that I.G.F. incessantly upholds and spreads out. The songs and the costumes from France, Italy, Spain, Israel, Romania, Argentina, The Czech Republic, Croatia, Serbia, Bulgaria, Greece, Egypt, Belarus, Portugal, Lithuania, Ukraine and Turkey provided the thousands of viewers the opportunity of admiring and appreciating the variety of world folklore. Year after year, the Caravan enhanced its attendance and artistic value. Its 2015 edition was a real success, as the Folklore Federations within I.G.F. delegated really valuable artists, who proved their artistic features during the two weeks. The newspaper reports, the films and the pictures are a living proof of this success. The effort of the hosts from the four centers was obviously accordingly.

Romania, France, Spain and Italy

The first stop – Portugal. As Portugal and then in Ourense contributed to the complexity of the Caravan. The thousands of Spanish viewers gave an ovation to the artists' performance in the central plaza of Ourense. The official meetings and the awards granted to all the festival performers constitute a sign of respect and appreciation of the I.G.F. Caravan.

France, by the work and effort of Zélida and Nicolas Charléty – I.G.F.'s deputy chairman – provided excellent conditions to the Caravan members, which made the artists meet the expectations. The applauses of the French

I.G.F. vice-chairman, Antonio Vinas Mira closely dealt with both the concerts from Portugal and from Spain. The inauguration concert from Braga and Ponte la Barca made all the artists know each other and get close. More than 4000 viewers attended the concerts in the open air, enjoying this international event. The travel to Spain, the attraction points visited in viewers, charmed by the colors and the rhythms brought on the stage from downtown Voiron, resounded as well.

The end of the 2015 I.G.F. Caravan took place at the official seat from San Giovanni Rotondo. The mayor Luigi Pompilio – an I.G.F. senator – and Benito Ripoli – I.G.F.'s vice-chairman – worked together tremendously well and put on a real celebration in Padre Pio's town. I.G.F.'s seat was covered in a gala outfit and in the end the viewers and the artists assisted to the prize awarding of those who had covered 10000 km under the I.G.F. flag. Apart from the Caravan artists, those who had struggled to carry out the activity under best conditions in this late June 2015 were not forgotten. Mister Adrian official reception with the local and national Italian authorities and a few I.G.F. members arrived at this event. The photographic art exhibition put on and kept alive by the Romanian artist Lucian Dobârtă was utterly interesting and welcomed very well. In fact, the Bistrița artist's exhibition had accompanied the Caravan in all the four countries, providing the audience with Puşcaş (the Caravan leader), Mister Ionele Gheorghe (the deputy leader) and the two drivers, Valentin Pop and Nuțu Sângeorzan, were thanked and given awards, even though the very end played an unexpected trick on them, which led to the extension of the stay in Italy by a few days.

At the I.G.F.'s seat, all the Caravan artists were invited and attended an

kind at the world level. The success proves our excellent collaboration within I.G.F., the team and fellowship spirit that drives us initiate and deploy activities of such amplitude. I.G.F.'s now having its own seat in San Giovanni Rotondo, which becomes more and more defined by exhibitions and shows, makes me believe that the future international meetings will be equally ample. I already plan an I.G.F. television, a folk Eurovision or the opportunity of seeing a certain manner of working in the Romanian photographic art. Appraised and admired, the exhibition added to the artistic life of the Caravan.

The 2015 edition of the Caravan proved once more the strength and the value of our world organization. To cover 10,000 km with this splendid message of friendship and harmony in the world is a unique event of this discussions in order to try, for the next year, an ample world folk meeting entitled 'From Meteora to Padre Pio'. We hope that we will succeed in this audacious idea and that we will be able to provide all the people who love beauty, peace and friendship with the special caravan ticket in due time.

a special event dedicated to the world folk song. Given that everybody knows about San Remo, why shouldn't they also know about San Giovanni Rotondo as a fatherland of spirituality and world folklore?

I most carefully and thoroughly plan a more specific closeness of all the peoples in the world by traditional music and dancing. In this respect we are having
